

I am disturbed by the possibility of greater media consolidation:
It will reduce freedom of expression and the public's ability to hear and see divergent point of view on national issues. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.